

Survival in office, by region of birth

Personally-dated appointments only. The four curves sit close together — origin does not buy tenure in a post. Rests on the 1150 of 1458 appointments whose holder has a coded birthplace, so it inherits that variable's bias toward the well documented, and the regional cohorts differ in era composition (see fig. 19).