

The gazette record reaches the top of the cabinet first

Appointments from 1968 onwards, portfolios with at least 40 of them; the bracketed count is that denominator. The head of government is cited at 64% against 1% for employment and vocational training. A subset filtered on `jort_citation` is therefore not a random sample of the cabinet: comparing cited rows to uncited ones largely compares sovereign posts to the rest.