

Survival in office, by the regime that made the appointment

Only appointments whose dates describe the person rather than their cabinet — an inherited cabinet span is an upper bound, not a tenure. Before 2011 a missing end date is usually a gap in the sources rather than an open tenure; 12 such rows are censored here.