

What entrants had been before, by era of entry

Share of entrants whose career is coded, per era: Protectorate 12 of 60, Bourguiba 37 of 126, Ben Ali 98 of 321, Transition 35 of 71, 2nd Republic 66 of 218. The coded minority is whoever has a biography, which favours the prominent; read the levels as a floor and the direction as the finding. A person can carry several flags. The diplomatic elite of the single-party decades gives way to a credentialed one — but see fig. 44, where the same shift appears in the schooling of a much larger documented group.
